Sayings of the Fathers

“Do not ask for love from your neighbor, for if you ask and he does not respond, you will be troubled. Instead show your love for your neighbor and you will be at rest, and so will bring your neighbor to love.”

— St. Dorotheos of Gaza

O Son of God, Who are risen from the dead, save us who sing to You: Alleluia!

O Son of God, Who are risen from the dead, save us who sing to You: Alleluia!

Troparion of the Resurrection, (Tone 8, Pg. 42)

You descended from on high, O compassionate One, and consented to burial for three days that You might free us from suffering. O Lord, our life and our resurrection, glory to You.

Troparion of All Saints (Tone 4)

O Christ God, your church clothed with the blood of Your martyrs all over the world, as with purple and fine linen, cries out to You: send Your mercy upon Your people, grant peace to Your fold and extend Your great compassion upon our souls.

Patronal Troparion (Tone 1, Pg. 15)

In giving birth, you have preserved your virginity, and in falling asleep, you did not forsake the world, O Mother of God. You have passed to life, being the Mother of Life. Through your intercession, save our souls from death.

Kontakion of All Saints (Tone 8)

To You, O Lord, Ordainer and Creator of the world, the universe offers the God-Bearing Martyrs as the first-fruits of nature.
